

Learning to Advise Training

SESSION No	TOPICS	LEARNING OUTCOMES By the end of the session learners will be able to:
Session 1	Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Explain the background to the St Giles peer advisor programme and how it supports services within the specific delivery context• Outline the structure and content of the peer advisor training programme and describe how this supports the work of peer advisors.• Explore the impact of prior life, work and experience in relation to the peer advisor programme• Identify learning preferences, support and development needs and plan actions for addressing these• Mutually agree a positive working practice

Session 2	Dynamics of Advice & Guidance work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define key terminology in relation to information, advice and guidance and outline the purposes of IAG services • Identify the attributes of an effective advice and guidance worker • Appreciate individual differences and preferences in relation to clients • Explain the components of an appropriate interview environment, including reference to seating arrangements.
Session 3	Communication skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify key aspects of communication • Identify different types/aspects of verbal and non-verbal communication • Discuss how types/aspects of communication might impact on interaction between people • Explore cultural differences in relation to communication • List barriers and difficulties in relation to communication and identify strategies for overcoming these • Identify a range of verbal and non-verbal communication skills that are appropriate for use in advice work

Session 4	Introduction to legislation and policies for advice work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduce the legislation and organisational policies that underpin advice work • Discuss the importance of complying with national and organisational requirements and the potential consequences of non-compliance • Discuss the limits of client confidentiality • Apply knowledge of policies, procedures and legislation to peer advisor practice
Session 5	Safeguarding	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define ‘abuse’, ‘neglect’, ‘harm’ and ‘safeguarding’ • Identify what might make someone particularly vulnerable in the advice and guidance context • Name the 6 key principles that underpin all adult safeguarding work • Identify the organisational policies, procedures and practices and legislation that define safeguarding roles and responsibilities and explain their importance • Explain own responsibilities in relation to safeguarding • Identify the consequences on non-compliance with policy, procedure and

		legislation in respect of safeguarding for clients, workers and organisations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify responsibilities and actions in relation to safeguarding scenarios
Session 6	Inclusivity, boundaries and non-judgemental practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define professional boundaries and explain their importance within the context of advice work • Understand how personal beliefs, opinions, views and behaviours impact on client work and the importance of non-judgemental practice • Understanding the importance of complying with policy and procedure with regards to boundaries and the potential consequences of non-compliance
Session 7	Documentation & information recording	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe a system for recording interactions with clients • Explain how to help clients in giving and getting information, assessing it and confirming requirements • Outline the importance of appropriately documenting advice and guidance work • Identify appropriate sources and types of information for different clients and suitable formats for it

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explain how to explore options with clients • Apply knowledge and produce an option review record/action plan.
Session 8	The Interview	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create a positive environment for an interview • Outline a process for effective interviews • Explain the components, knowledge and skills involved in effective interviews • Explain what is involved in effective contracting • Identify the potential implications of not contracting effectively • Compare and contrast 'open questions' and 'closed questions' • Apply interviewing skills to case studies • Identify why it is important to encourage autonomy amongst clients
Session 9	Making Referrals & Signposting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the differences between referring & signposting clients • List the advantages & disadvantages of referring or signposting clients to other services • Identify a range of appropriate referral agencies, both internal and external that may be accessed by clients

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe the services offered by the identified referral agencies • Identify information that should be obtained from other services before making a referral • Agree information that should be provided to clients before a referral
Session 10	Dealing with difficult situations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify a range of challenging situations, including those that require immediate action • Explain actions needed to address priority/urgent/emergency situations • Explain who can be referred to in priority/urgent/emergency situation with reference to own role • Identify, and explore possible reasons for, challenging client behaviours • Identify strategies for dealing with challenging client behaviours • Apply strategies for dealing with challenging behaviours and situations to case studies • Explain why methods, approaches and strategies may vary when working with different clients