

Starting
February 2022!!!

GET INTO INTERPRETATION

with Let's Interpret

- Are you a woman with childcare/caring responsibilities?
- Do you speak English and one or more other languages fluently?
- Would you like make use of these language skills and learn how to become an interpreter?

MORE DETAILS OVERLEAF...

WHAT ARE WE OFFERING?

BECOME PART OF A WELCOMING, SUPPORTIVE GROUP OF FEMALE COMMUNITY INTERPRETERS AND...

- Complete a Level 3 accredited public service interpretation course
- Access additional professional training in safeguarding, equality & diversity, data protection and self-care
- Build confidence in your language skills and learn how you can become a self-employed interpreter
- Find out about the interpretation needs of local organisations and get involved in a community language podcast
- Get support to continue your learning and access Level 4 interpretation courses

PROGRAMME STARTS FEBRUARY 2022!!!

For more information or to register your interest please get in contact before 14th January 2022:
Michele Aitchison, Let's Interpret Coordinator
micheleaitchison@srcdc.org.uk / 07732 050 864

This programme is being funded by...

